

Early Journal Content on JSTOR, Free to Anyone in the World

This article is one of nearly 500,000 scholarly works digitized and made freely available to everyone in the world by JSTOR.

Known as the Early Journal Content, this set of works include research articles, news, letters, and other writings published in more than 200 of the oldest leading academic journals. The works date from the mid-seventeenth to the early twentieth centuries.

We encourage people to read and share the Early Journal Content openly and to tell others that this resource exists. People may post this content online or redistribute in any way for non-commercial purposes.

Read more about Early Journal Content at <http://about.jstor.org/participate-jstor/individuals/early-journal-content>.

JSTOR is a digital library of academic journals, books, and primary source objects. JSTOR helps people discover, use, and build upon a wide range of content through a powerful research and teaching platform, and preserves this content for future generations. JSTOR is part of ITHAKA, a not-for-profit organization that also includes Ithaka S+R and Portico. For more information about JSTOR, please contact support@jstor.org.

SCHOOL AND ALUMNI NOTES

'82—William T. Haviland, of Bridgeport, has been elected president of the Bar Association of Fairfield County, Connecticut, in place of George E. Hill, '91, who was recently elected to the presidency of the State Bar Association.

'89—E. G. Buckland, vice-president of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company, addressed the undergraduates of Brown University on Thursday afternoon, February 24, on "The College Man in the Railroad Business."

'90—Robert C. Morris, president of the Republican Club of New York City, is in charge of the arrangements for the reception of Ex-President Theodore Roosevelt on his return to this country in June.

'93—A. G. M. Robertson, of Honolulu, has been appointed Judge of the United States District Court for the Territory of Hawaii, to succeed Hon. George W. Woodruff, Yale College, '89, resigned.

'96—Joseph C. Sweeney is a member of the house committee of the University Club of Providence.

'99—On April 5, Hon. Edward L. Smith was elected Mayor of Hartford, Conn., on the Democratic ticket.

'99 D. C. L.—An article on "Extraterritorial Domicile," by Professor Charles H. Huberich, of Stanford University Law School, which appeared not long ago in the Law Quarterly Review, is liberally quoted by and serves as an authority for the Supreme Court of Maine in the recent case of Mather v. Cunningham, 74 Atl. Rep. 814, 817, 818. The case involved the acquisition of domicile in China by an American citizen. Professor Huberich is Exchange Professor at the University of Wisconsin.

'02—John F. Malley was recently elected State Senator from the First District of Hampden County, Massachusetts, upon the Democratic ticket. The district is usually strongly Republican.

'03—Benjamin Marcus is a member of the firm of Cowan, Ketchum & Marcus, of 140 Nassau Street, New York City.

'04—Henry D. Erwin, formerly Deputy Assistant District Attorney of the County of New York, announces that he has opened an office for the general practice of law at 34 Pine Street, New York City.

'08—Wilson D. Frederick has been promoted from legal work in the American National Bank of Pomona, Cal., to the position of cashier of the First National Bank of Lordsburg, Cal.

'09—Edward J. Quinlan is practicing law with the firm of Walsh & Wright, of Greenwich, Conn.

'09—George L. Weekes recently passed the Massachusetts Bar examinations and is at present with the firm of Powers & Hall, 101 Milk Street, Boston, Mass.

'09—Theodore M. Crisp on March 31, 1910, entered into a co-partnership with W. Benton Crisp and Robert F. Randall, for the general practice of law, with offices at 20 Broad Street, New York City.

---

Edward J. Garvan, '96, former Judge of the Hartford Police Court, died at his home, 236 Farmington Avenue.

---

Alfred Burdette Hughes, '97, chief clerk of the Board of Charities and Correction of New Haven, died of pneumonia after a week's illness at his home on Forbes Avenue, East Haven, on Friday evening, February 4.

---

Lon K. Wisheart, '05, died at his home in Los Angeles, Cal., on February 11. He was born in Middletown, Ind., February 22, 1873, and spent three years at Leland Stanford, Jr., University before entering the Law School, where he was president of the Kent Club and took honors in Junior year. He had lived in Los Angeles after graduation from the Law School.

---